Inland Investments Hires Vice President and Head of Investment System Strategies

Oak Brook, Ill. – Inland Real Estate Investment Corporation (“Inland Investments” or “the company”), one of the nation’s largest sponsors of alternative public and private real estate securities, announced today that Jovan Marconi has joined the company as vice president and head of investment system strategies.

In this newly created position, Mr. Marconi will be responsible for developing and implementing Inland Investments’ investment process strategy, concentrating on the delivery and oversight of complex technology projects and initiatives. In addition, he will focus on developing a technology roadmap for enterprise initiatives that are consistent with business objectives and further enhancing the company’s operational information systems, including online image, digital marketing, and advanced analytics.

Mr. Marconi brings a wealth of expertise with more than 20 years of experience in investment technology management. Prior to joining Inland Investments, he held positions with Invesco, AEGON Asset Management, and Mercer Investment Consulting. Most recently, he served as head of investment technology at Legal and General Investment Management America (LGIM America). At LGIM America, Jovan was responsible for promoting and implementing technology and operational best practices in fund management across investment teams. He was also responsible for implementing strategic solutions to improve collaboration, enhance operational efficiencies, and migrate business risk.

“We are extremely excited to welcome Jovan to the executive team and look forward to drawing upon his impressive investment technology experience,” said Mitchell Sabshon, CEO and president of Inland Investments. “This new role underscores our dedication to embracing ongoing technological advancements, efficient investment processes and robust information systems.”

Mr. Marconi received his Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Northeastern Illinois University and a Master of Business Administration from DePaul University. He holds certifications as a Professional Scrum Product Owner, Scrum Master and an IBM certification in Databases and SQL for Data Sciences. Mr. Marconi is also a co-founder of and member of the board of directors of Out in Finance.
