Inland Securities Corporation Announces Appointment of Stephen Blazick as Senior Vice President-External Wholesaler

OAK BROOK, Ill. – Inland Securities Corporation (“Inland Securities”), the exclusive dealer-manager and placement agent for real estate investment programs sponsored by Inland Real Estate Investment Corporation and Inland Private Capital Corporation, announced today that Stephen Blazick has joined the company as senior vice president – external wholesaler.

In his position, Mr. Blazick will serve as an external wholesaler working to build relationships with current and new financial advisors throughout Upstate New York and the New England region.

Blazick brings nearly 40 years of experience in wholesale distribution of real estate investment programs in the financial services industry to his position with Inland Securities. With his proven track record as a financial advisor, external wholesaler and recruiter, Mr. Blazick will continue to build relationships throughout his assigned territories. Prior to joining Inland Securities, he served as a recruiter for Mass Mutual New York State and Cadaret Grant & Co. In addition, he was a regional vice president for Wells Capital.

Mr. Blazick holds FINRA Series 7, 6, and 63 securities licenses. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics and Management from Niagara University in Lewiston, New York.
